Team Management,
Skill development

About Me

I'm Swastik Bal , a 3rd year Electronics and Communication Engineering(ECE) student of Coochbehar Government Engineering College. My fascination with electronic devices began early and this passion has guided my academic journey. Whether it's tinkering with circuit design or exploring the latest tech innovation, I am always eager to dive into the world of electronics. Outside of my studies, I'm always on the outlook for new challenge and opportunities to apply my knowledge in real world scenarios.
